

TRANSACTION MANAGEMENT

The only thing more important than your house is peace of mind when it comes to buying or selling a property. That's why we have the transaction management fee set at $395. Our team will store all documentation related to any real estate deal for seven years so you can be confident that nothing gets lost in translation, and there are no hidden costs incurred by either party as part of this agreement.

STORAGE of your personal data, contracts, addendums, inspections, and all paperwork related to the real estate transaction for 7 years. Accessible at a moment's notice. (Required by Law for Brokerages.)

SAFETY – Peace of mind that Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Florida Properties Group has archived all the information on your deal to protect you and your property.

SECURITY – Your personal data and the files within every transaction are locked behind the latest encryption and stored safely without having to worry over privacy concerns or breaches of information.
